Siezure of the Black Warrior --- President's Message.

The Telegraph brings us a brief abstract of the Message of the President to Congress, in answer to a call upon him for information relative to the mezure of the steamer Black Warrior by the autherities of Cubs. It will be remembered that this steamship, which is a favorite vessel plying monthly between Mobile and New York, after being allowed for more than a year to touch as Havana for passengers and mails, presenting the authorities with a manifest of such cargo as it was intended to land there, has lately been siezed by order of the Captain General, because her cotton tound for New York, was not on the manifest. It is, indeed, high time that the insolence of these miserable Catalana should be curbed; and if Spain has not sufficient sense of right, or sufficient power to keep her Cuban officials in order Uncle Sam may as well give them a lesson. This is not the first outrage. The firing into the steamer Falcon by the Spenish war steamer Isabella-the conduct of the authorities in the case of the Crescent City-the imprisonment of nine American seamen for months without cause, together with hosts of minor annuyances and inenits, are all chalked down long ago. Perhaps the time has come for settling up accounts. If it is to be done, though, we hope it will be tione in an open manner, and directly, and not toy a repeal of the neutrality laws, so as to let the Sibustics spirits spring at the Queen of the Antithe. That would be an act of plunder. No ;give the scamps on the island a lesson at once from the guns of national vessels, and if that is not effectual, and Spain does not thank us for it take another step forward. The whole Spanish army on the island would not stand a charge from a regiment of such men as won Chapultepee.

New Hampshire Election.

So far 23 we have returns from the election in New Hampshire, they are decidedly favorable to medicio. In towns which elected 177 democrats to 67 epposition, there are now returned to the ower house 101 democrats to 103 apposition.— The telegraph says:-" If the remainder come in as hast year, the domocrats will have 45 majority." it looks very much to us as if—supposing them to were in as the others do this year-the democrati will have no majority at all.

Last year the Locos elected their Governor by 1312 majority, and had 80 majority in the House, and the Secate almost unanimously.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINGL.

Madison, March 14, 1854. i shell have to give it up that I cannot write a readable hand. In my report of the Sth, by the and of the printer, I set Mr. Knowlton to amending thepter 137 of the United States, What part or the United States chapter 137 is, I am not Geographe: enough to determine, but I guess it must be Nebraska. To settle the question, for Unated States, read Revised Statutes.

Among the proceedings of the Senate this mornng, the Milwaukee and Fond du Lac air line Hed Road bill was touched upon, and the bill laid on the table till to-morrow, for the purpose of obtaining further information in regard to it. A bill to repeal the Statute of limitation in relation suits was decapitated. Mr. Duni made some appropriate remarks upon the impolicy of changing general laws to meet particular cases upon which the general law might bear hard; for to so doing, they might do incalculable wrong in

A vill also passed the committee of the whole relative to the advertisement of probate notices providing that the party may select the paper in which the notice shall be published. Mr. Dewey on whose motion the last mentioned bill was describinted, made the same motion in regard to this-that the enacting clause be struck out. Mr Dump interposed in favor of the bill, beliving its provisions to be worthy of consideration. It was dien the case that attorneys wished to make arrangements with some publisher to do such advertising by the year, as a matter of econo ray, and may arrangement of the kind which tended to reduce fees, he thought worthy of con-

Mr. Dawey finally withdrew his motion, and Mr. Rymert moved to amend so as exempt the county of Waukesha from the operation of the proposed law. They had a county judge there in whom they had confidence, and to whom they were willing to intrust the disposal of notices of this kind. Another Senstar moved to exempt another county.

Mr. Wakely hoped that both amendment would be withdrawn. He presumed that most o the counties in the State had good county judges, but that had nothing to do with the question.was inclined to favor the provisions of the bill, but if assend it should be uniform in its operation ile was opposed to establishing one judicial systens, or one mode of practice in one county, and another in another county. The amendments were withdrawn.

Mr. Blair favored the bill, but thought the rule should be made uniform, not only in the several courts of the State, and further action thereon was deferred for the or the purpose of extending the rule to all cases the Supreme and Circuit Courts. The bill unhorizes, the judge, for good and sufficient casous to be entered on the record, to make a se cattery order.

In passing from the dia and confusion of the hasombly, it is pleasing to observe the quiet and possiderate manner in which business is done up the Senate. It is but justice to say that Mesors. Dump and Dewey are among the most seful mambers of that body. The ex-Governor and watches for every various which makes The appearance, and seems to take as much delight killing as many as he can, as a buy would in in a rate or chip-mucks; while the ex-Judge, by his long experience upon the bonch, is perularly qualified to scrutinize and criticize ers measure which comes before the Sonate, and though frequently with the minority, he is andy found on the wrong side. "Honor to om hesor is due 🤫 in Assembly, the Speaker presented a comtunication and correspondence from Honorable Sec. C. Essiman, relative to the swamp Lands the state, which were read and referred to the a immittee on State Affairs.

Bills were introduced as follows: By Mr. Zimmerman, a bill to incorporate the Gesmantown Former's Mutual Insurance Com-By Mr. Gary, a bill to amend chapter 181 of

for the relief of Exra A. Parker. By Mr. Bell, a bill concerning the man

The only other bill passed was one to organize the town of Arlington, in the county of Colum-Mr. Mitchell, from the committee an Agriculture to who was referred the subject of an Agricultural department of the State University, made a lengthy report recommending the establishment | for which other provisions are not already made of such a department, and that the swamp lands of the State be devoted, so far as necessary, to endow it.

Mr. Noggle, from the committee on the expiration and re-enactment of laws, made a long : re port against the right of the legislature to authorize towns, counties and cities to loan their credit to rail road companies. The report was read and 500 copies ordered to be printed. This report I think, is more sound in its conclusions than in its promises, which are, that the legislature possesses such nowers only as are conferred upon i by the constitution, and that the idea that it pos sesses all powers not taken away by the constitution, is a political heresy.

The resolution changing the time of the meet ing of the Assembly from ten to nine A.M. passwithout opposition.

The voto of the bill to divide the county of La Crosse and established the courty of Monroe, was nauimously sustained by the Assembly. The the judge of the United States for the proper objection was, that it authorized the changing of the county seat otherwise than as allowed by the constitution.

Next came another tug upon the liquor bill. Mr. Noggle moved that a committee of conferrence be appointed on the part of the Assembly, to consist of Messrs. Knowlton, Remington and Worthington. Mr. Noggle explained that the motion was not made from any want of confidence in the speaker, but to secure a majority on he joint committee in favor of the bill as it passed the Assembly. The Senate had appointed, on their part, two in favor of the position of the senate and one in favor of the position of the Assembly, and if the chair appointed the Assembly committee, he would be bound by parliamen try usage to appoint two in favor of the position of the Assembly, and one in favor of that of the Senate and the joint committee would be equally divided and no action could be expected from

Of course, the opponents of the bill loudly domanded to be heard upon that committee, and a sharp contest of words was contined till dinner hour, when the question was put and carried; ayes 42; poes 29. This was a valiant right-footforward, on the part of the friends of the bill, but whether calculated to increase its chances of success in the end may be questioned. In the afternoon the Assembly took up the order of the day in committee of the whole -- the "hill to provide for the taxation of all the property of the State." Mr. Gary moved, to strike out that part of section 2 which taxes persons in this state for stocks they may own in incorporated companies in other states. He showed very clearly, ! thought, that we might just as properly tax a man for a farm he might own in another state, and that in attempting to do either, the state would exceed its jurisdiction. Mr. Orton sustained this view of it, and Mr. Knowlton showed its obsurdity and the impossibility of collecting, such a tax if it were levied. Mr. Donaldson contended that it was just as proper to tax stocks out of the state, as to tax bonds mortgages and promiseory notes, for both brought the owner au income; and he was backed up by Mr. Wright of Racine. But it seemed not to have occurred to either of them that to tax either of those was wrong, and involved double taxation in every instance of the kind.

But the amendment was voted down by a large majority, and so was every sensible amendment that was offered; for there were several such whome context must be considered, in endsaverwhich I have not time to notice. I have had a very favorable opinion of the intelligence of the present Assembly, and especially of the legislative ability of the author of this bill (Mr. Donaldson,) and I have still; but in this matter, the majority have evidently got beyond their depth, and they know not what they do. To devise and arrange a just and equitable system of taxation rebuires more knowledge of governmental science than most men have had the opportunity o acquiring, and yet every man thinks he understands it perfectly, and here lies the evil. If ordinary men knew but just enough to know that it is a difficult subject, they would be less confiden; and more cautious. They are determined the bill shall conform to its title-" to tax all the property in the state," and this is all very well; ut the misery is that a majority have m motion as to what property is, and they fall to taxing, first the thing, then its skin, then its skadow, and all manner of inequality and injustice is But my yarn is already long enough; though I have wool enough for twice as much more. This outlandish bill will doubtless pass the Assembly without material amendment, but it is hardly possible it can pass the Senate.

For the Sentinel. The Writ of Habeas Corpus issued by by Judge Miller, and the Discharge of Garland, an Usurpation of Authority.

Messrs, Editors : Judge Miller has made public through the Slavo-catcher's and his organ—the News-the grounds for his interference with the administration of the laws of the sovereign State of Wisconsin, and discharging from lawful custody a prisoner under such state law. He claims the rightfollows:

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, that either of the justices of the Supremo Court, or a judge of any district court of the United States, in addition to the authority already conferred by law, shall have power to grant write of habeas corpus in District Judges of the United States, is of recent all gases of a wilcome representation in the state of the United States, is of recent all gases of a wilcome representation in the state of the United States, is of recent and the property of the United States, is of recent and the property of the state of the United States, is of recent and the property of the state of the United States, is of recent and the property of the state of the state of the state of the state of the United States, is of recent and the property of the state have power to grant writs of habeas corpus in all cases of a prisoner or prisoners, in jail or con-fivement, where he or they shall be committed or confined on or by any authority or law, for any act done, or omitted to be done, in pursuance of a law of the United States, or any order, pro-cess or decree, of any judge or court thereof, any thing in any act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is conceded and admitted that this section, standing alone, and considered by itself, disconnected with the subject matter of the act, and the provisions thereof preceding and following the section under consideration, that it may appear to justify the use thereof by him made on this of a prisoner or prisoners, in jail or confinement," for whatever causes or grounds the prisoners were confined. But this is obviously not a correct rule of interpretation. The little of the act, as well as all the sections preceding as well as following the one sought to be expounded should be carefully scrutinized and considered to determine the meaning and intent of the legislature; and any particular clause or section should be enlarged, or restrained to effectuate such manifest Leaving now, for the present, these sound rules of construction to be supported by the authorities bereafter cited, let us enquire, first, what is the Title of the act which contains the 7th section under which Judge Miller claims the right to issue the habeas corpus to the Sherifi of Racine County. It is entitled "An act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports." Was there any thing in the arrest of Garland by the Sheriff of Racine County which had relation to "any act done, or omitted to be done" by him concerning "duties on imports?" No man pretends it. Then, prima facie, so far as the Title of the act relates to cases of habeas corpus, this is not one of the cases where a habeas corpus is allowed to be issued. But let us examine the body of the actifself: perhaps this is one of those acis sometimes passed by Congress and State. Legislatures, where the title of the cit is not a true index of the provisions thereof. Sec. 1, the private and local acts of 1853, entitled an act commences as follows; (I will only give the commencement of each section and so much thereof as shows the general scope thereof, as the whole act is quite long.) That whenever, by

Mr. Topliff reported a bill to vacate a part of | to execute the revenue laws, and collect the duties the village plat of the city of Richland, which on imports in the ordinary way, in any collection district," &c. This first section, sarely, follows the Title of the act concerning duties on imports. The 2d section commences as follows: "That the jurisdiction of the Circuit Courts of the United States, shall extend to all cases, in law or equity, arising under the revenue laws of the United States, by law," &c., and declares properly thus seized. for a violation of the revenue laws shall be irrepleviable, &c. Section 3 is very long and in thus indexed in the margin. "Action in State Courts against revenue officers to be removed on petition, &c., of defendant, to Circuit Court -Stay of proceeding in State Court-Marshal to take defendant in custody - State process of attachment, &c., to continue in force-De novo proceeding. 1 Sec. 1. "Record to be supplied where a capy of record cannot be had from the State Court. Sec. 5, "President to issue proclamation and to suppress obstructions to the laws by military force, or other means, within any state." Sec. 5. "That in any case where the jails, are not allowed to be used for the imprisonment of persons arrested or committed under the laws of the United States, or where houses are not allowed to be so used, it shall and may to lawful for any marshal, under the direction of district, to use convenient places, within the limits of said state, and to make such other provisions as he may deem expedient and necessary for that purpose."

Then follows the 7th sec, relied upon by Judge Miller. Lastly, sec. 8 .- That the several provisions contained in the first and fifth sections of this act, shall be in force until the end of the next session of Congress, and no longer."

All of your readers, Messrs Editors, will remember the acts and threats of multification of South Carolina in 1832 and 1833, to meet which this act was passed; and it is plain—palpable that the body of the act is in strict accordance with the title thereof, and that the whole act relates solely and exclusively to the revenue taws, and imprisonments and confinements "for any act done, or omitted to be done" concerning the subject matter of that act.

But allowing it to be a case of doubt, it is for that very reason that resort may be had to the title of the act to determine what was meant by any doubtful provisions in it. In Smith's Commentaries on Statutory and Constitutional construction, sec. 556, we find the following: For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the legislature in certain cases, and under great stress of doubt, resort may be had to the title of a statute It has been held that the title is no part of the statute, for the reason that in England it is usually framed by the clerk of the house in which it first passed, and is soldom read more than once This reason does not hold good in this country, for here the legislature make the title as well as the preamble and body of the statute,"

So much as to the title of the act, to wit: "An act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports," indicating the subject matter and the occasions on which a writ of habeas corpus under the 7th section thereof is authorized to be issued,--Let us now apply the rules of construction when the general provisions or body of the act is considered. The same learned author says in sec. 502, that another rule is: "that the sense and meaning of the parties in any particular instrument should he collected ex antecedentibus et consequentibus; that is to say, every part of it should be brought into action, in order to collect from the whole one uniform and consistent sense, if that may be done; or, in other words, the construction must be made upon the entire instrument and not merely upon disjointed parts of it; THE ing to collect the intention of the parties, although the immediate object of the inquiry be the meaning force in the construction of statutes, when seek ing for the intention of the legislature." To the same import is the decision of Mr. Justice Coleridge is a recent card (Res vs. The Post Law Commissioners, 33 English Com. Law Rep.) He says: "The court must apply, in such a case, the same rules which it would use in constraing the limitations of a deed; it must look to the whole context, and endeavor to give effect to all the provisions enlarging or RESTRAINING, if need be for that purpose, the lieral interretation of any particular part," To the same effect is the decision of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. In 1 Cowen's Rep. 122, the Court illustrates the well established rule as follows :- "Thus, if 'a release acknowledges the receipt of $10, and thereof acquits and discharges the person of whom it is received, and also of all actions, debts and demands by the release nothing is discharged but the $10; for the last words are limited by the first," and cites 2 Roll. Ab. 409; 3 Mod. 277; 1 Ld. Rog. 935; 4 E. & P. 113; 5 Bacon 711.

Guided now by these sound and well established rules of interpretation, is there any room for doubt that the provisions of section 7, giving the habeas corpus, is to be restrained and limited to cases of imprisonment and confinement-" fo any acts done, or omitted to be done." Epselified in the context, or the preceding sections of the act? It seems to me not; and however other judges of the district courts of the United States may have issued writs of habeas corpus under this 7th section in cases not falling within the specific provisions of that act, their practice cannot overturn or after the language and meaning ful exercise of this authority by virtue of the 7th of the law. The usurpation of power and section of the act of Congress, Approved, March authority not given by law in this case, is just as 2, 1833, of which he gives a copy, which is as great, and demands even greater resistance from the state courts and the people, if it has been origin, if not coaval only with the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850. In 1845, twelve years after the pas sage of this act of 1833, nuder which Judge Mil ler claims the right to issue his writ of habens corpus, Thomas W. Dorr, of Rhode Island, con victed of treason against the state and imprisoned in the state's prison, applied to the Supreme Court of the United States (surely as big court as Judge Miller's) for a writ of babea corpus, and the court refused to issue it, on the ground they had no power to do so. Mr. Justice McLean, who delivered the opinion of the cour in that case, made use of the following languagecoasion, and to be in fact applicable to "all cases (3 Howard's Rep. 105.) "Neither this nor any other court of the United States, on support THEREOF, can issue a habeas corpus to bring up a prisoner, who is in custody under a sentence ecution of a state court, for any other purpos than to be used as a witness. And it is immate rial whether the imprisonment be under civil a riminal process. As the law now stands, an individual, who may be indicted in a Circuit Court for treason against the United States, is Leyonthe power of federal courts and judges, if he be in custody under the authority of a state." How does this decision of the Supreme Cour of the United States, compare with the decision of Judge Miller in the trial of Garland? The latter declares that Garland, merely accompanying a Marshal in pursuit of a fugitive slave, is protected in any and every violation of state laws, and that state laws cannot reach or touch him! The Supreme Court of the United States, on the other hand, declared, that "if he be in custody under the authority of a state," though he be indicted in a circuit court for TREASON against the United States, is beyond the power of federal court AND JUDGES' Whose decisions shall be respecte and obeyed—that of the Supreme Court of the United States, or that of Judge Miller? They are in direct conflict with each other, and one only can be right. Away-away, with such a Judge as Miller, who if he does not resign, or is not impeached, will inevitably bring disgrace upon the national judiciary, or a fearful collision resulting in the contempt and defiance of all federal judicial authority among us. THE STEAMER WM. NORRIS. - This steamship, on the stocks at Greenpoint, Long Island, ha not been sold to the Russian governmedat, as has been stated. She was seized on executions amounting to abount $57,000, on the 17th of February, and was to be sold at auction on the 13tb.

BRITISH IMPRESSMENT .- The London Examiner dvocates the immediate abolition of the system ish sailors in the service. It pertinently asks:

"Is it possible to suppose that as soon as the news of war between Russia and Eugland arrives in New York, an Euglish sailor just stepping on board a liner in which he has for several years been paid $4 a month wages, bound for Liverpool, will be fool enough to expose bimself to the distinct through the project through its prival pool, will be obte should be exposed upon his arrival there, robbed of more than £2 a mouth at once, and possibly sent to look after Russians in the North Pacific—when by simply stepping to an office ever open, he can provide himself with a certificate of American citizenship, secure his wages, and see his wife and children when he likes, or marry the girl of his heart if he chooses?"

The Remonstrance of 3000 Clergymen of New England.

The following is the remonstrance sent on to Washington by 3000 clergymen of New England against the Nebraska Bill, and which Scanter Douglas ventured, in his place in Senate, to denounce as an " atrocious slander :"

The undersigned—Clorgymen of different re-ligious denominations in New England—hereby, in the name of Almighty God, and in His presence, do selemuly protest against the passage of what is known as the "Nebraska bill," or any repeal or modification of existing legal prohibi-tions of slavery in that part of our national dom-ain which it is ain, which it is proposed in organize into the ter-ritories of Nebraska and Kansas.

We protest against it as a great moral wrong; as a breach of faith eminently injurious to the moral principles of the community, and subversive of all confidence in national engagements; as a measure full of danger to the peace and even the existence of our beloved Union, and exposing us to the rightcous judgments of the Almighty.

And your protestants, as in duty bound, will appropriate. erer pray.

The War Feeling in England.

The following notice of a late debate in the the Asia, gives an indication of the state of the public mind in England :

In the British Parliament the discussions subsequent to the departure of the last packet have not presented anything of importance since, although there was a long debate last night in the House of Commons on the war question; it was carried on merely by speakers anxious to give voice to well known crotchets, all of which were of the most contradictory kind, and consequently such as to pressuate no answer from the governsuch as to necessiate no answer from the govern-ment. Mr. Clobden was averse to Russia being interfered with in her course of aggression, and therefore denounced the corduct of Ministers as therefore denounced the conduct of Ministers as showing the most oulpable tardiness in recognizing the danger of allowing Russia to go on, and that a vigorous Cabinet would have declared war a year ago; the two parties could safely be left to neutralize each other. Lord Palmerston, however, wound up the talk with a speech that put them in their proper position, and was received with loud cheers. In the course of his remarks be took an opportunity of complorating the aswith loud cheers. In the course of his remarks he took an opportunity of corroborating the assertion of Lord John Russel as to the more than Eastern falsehood of Russia. "It is painful to speak," he said, "of a Government like Russia in terms of ceneure or reprobation, but I am bound to say, on behalf of the English Government, that the Russian Government by itself and its agents has throughout these transactions exhausted every modification of untruth, concealment and evesion, and ended with assertions of positive falsehood.

An editor in California lately received a long document which he was requested to insert gratis under his editorial head. He placed it under his pillow that night, and expresses his willingness to insert similar communications in the same way and on similar terms.

We would be glad to be able to dispose of a dozen communications which we have on hand, in the same way, for we have no space left us at all in these days for the thousand interesting news items which are pressing upon us.

Doings in Congress,

Senate—Mr. Stuart introduced a bill, granting land to Michigan for Railway purposes.

House—The Speaker submitted a communication from the Secretary of the Navy, in answer to a resolution of inquiry, slating that steamers in the employ of the Ocean Mail service are not built in such a manner as would render them reliable war steamers, in case they should be required for such service, though they could be made very useful as transports or as privateers, having small armanents.

A personal explanation was made by Mosars,
Hunt and Laue, growing out of the exciting proceedings of Friday.

Mr. Douglas and the Cabinet are in constant attendance in the House, working like drill-sergeant. But the South has broken front, and the Northern Democracy is in open mutiny. The bill is regarded as dead.

The Washington Correspondent of the Courier and Euquirer is usually well informed; but we fear he does not speak by authority? in thus predicting the death of the Nebraska swindle. That That will be a proud day for the nation when the vile measure shall be kicked out of Congress.—Alb. Ev. Journal.

At the last accounts, the Marshal was at Bentouville, Arkansas, surrounded in hotel by seventeen of the law resisting party, demanding that he should be given up. Bayard Tuylor's Lecture.

Young's Hall was packed full last evening with attentive listeners to Bayard Taylor's lec ture on the Anans; and when that hall is filled the several cities in the Union is in circulation in a lecturer may well suppose that there is some enriceity to hear him. Mr. Taylor's manner i very pleasing, his enunciation distinct, and voice clear, and the mingled history and philosophy relative to the Arabs which he gave his audience was such as to cause him to be listened to through out with unflagging interest.

The lecture to-night, at the same time and piace, will be upon the subject of JAPAN, that old Cathay which the Genoese did not discover centaries ago, and which men from the world which he did discover are now endeavoring to penetrate. Mr. Taylor has been one of these latter, and his experience will be interesting. Of course overybody will be there.

This route offers great inducements to shippers of produce to the east, the Boston market being a favorable one, and the rates of transportation such as to encourage trade from this quarter Besides this, the route of travel closen lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence, across New York, and down through the Green Mountains, is one of the pleasantest in the country.

RAILEOAD LETTINGS .-- Railroad Contractors will notice in our paper the advertisement of the Milwaukee and Horicon R. R. Co. for proposals for work of grading &c., on their first section. This company has been quietly, but very industriously at work during the last two or three mouths among a population who feel the need of railroad connection with the cast, and have come forward promptly with their subscriptions to the stock .-The prospect is excellent for a road, completed at an early day, straight up through Marquette and Waushara Co. to the pineries. by which 50 lives were lost:

The boat was ascending Whiteriver with a full cargo and a large number of deek passengers, and when twenty miles above the mouth, at 2, r. m., a fire was discovered immediately over the after end of the boilers, which soon, communicated to a the cabin and consumed the boat. The flames a were caused from the heat of the boilers, and the sight wood work of the boat burnt very rapidly. As soon as the alarm was given the greatest containon prevailed on boaed, and in a very few minutes all communication between the forward and after part of the boat was cut-off by the intense heat and smoke which filled the deek room and to this may be ascribed the great loss of life, chiefly emigrants, who were in the after deek room and who could not reach the forward part of the boat or the shote in time to save their lives. War News from France.

The Paris correspondence of the London, Morning Chronicle says:
In addition to the army of observation of 100,000 men to be formed on the frontier of the Alps, one to be formed on the frontier of the Alps, and the 10,000 men who will probably be sent to Rome, I understand that the expedition to Turkey, instead of consisting of 40,000 men, as was orginally intended, will ultimately be raised to 80,000 of the best men in the French army.

The division of the army intended to aid, the Turks will leave Toulon and Algiers on the 6th of March.

Turks will leave Toulon and Algiers on the 6th of March:
The Monitour of Friday says that all the officials of the French embassy will leave St. Petersburge, except M. de Castillon, to whom till further orders, the French interests are confided. Thef act of unfavorable news having been received in Paris from Vienna is fully confirmed to-day. The same paper publishes a decree calling into activity the young dispose ble soldiers of the classes of 1849 and 1850, 1810 a letter dated Feb. 16 calling Gen. de Castelbains from St.

It would appear that one of the most warlike of the political personages in Paris is the papal nuncio. His Ewinence, it appears, is of opinion that the care has been too tenderly treated all through; that war should have been declared long since; and that the allies must not only drive him out of the principalities, but destroy Subastopol, and take from him the Crimea.
